Our Speaker

Our speaker is Dr.

Duncan Rankin,
pastor of Christ

Church Presbyterian (PCA) in Evans, GA. Dr. Rankin is a native of Aiken,

South Carolina. Prior to joining the staff of Christ Church in 2008, he was Pastor of Covenant Presbyterian Church (PCA) in Oak Ridge, Tennessee. Dr. Rankin served as Associate Professor of Systematic Theology at Reformed Theological Seminary (RTS) in Jackson, Mississippi from 1993-2003, and he continues as Adjunct Professor of Theology there at present, periodically teaching courses in Christology and Ecclesiology on various campuses in the RTS system. A graduate of Clemson University in Ceramic Engineering, he was studying as a graduate assistant at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT), when he sensed God's call to further his theological training. He is a graduate of RTS-Jackson (M. Div.) and New College, Edinburgh, Scotland (Ph.D.). He and his wife, Shirley, who also grew up in Aiken, have three children.

Children's Program Leader

Beth Huddleston comes to us from Sevierville, Tennessee and will be with our children during missions weekend. She received Christ as her Savior when she was 6 or 7 years old, and has been working with children and youth for over 27 years. She, along with our own Ms. Mazie Davis, has directed the children's program for the PEF Conferences in 2000, 2001, 2002, and 2003. She has directed the children's mission program for Midway PCA in Powder Springs, GA and at their home church, Evergreen PCA, in Sevierville. Beth and husband Marty have been married for 24+ years and are blessed with 4 children. She is excited to have their youngest daughter, Sarah, join with her this weekend.
